◎ This application is to be submitted to receive exemptions for dependents, disabled persons, etc., regarding your salary, and if you receive salary from two or more salary payers, you can only submit this application to one of them.

◎ Read "1. Notes on the application" or the like on the back side when describing this declaration.

(English版)

1. Notes on the application

- (1) Submit this application to the salary payer by the day before you receive the first salary in 2026.
- (2) If the matters to be described in this application have not changed from the matters described in the application submitted via the payer of the salary in the 2025, you may submit a return stating that "there is no change" instead of matters to be described (refer to as a "simplified application" hereinafter). When submitting the simplified application, refer to how to fill out the simplified application (example) on the website of the National Tax Agency.
- (3) If any change occurs in the contents described in this application after submission, either submit an application of change or amend the concerned item in this application.
- (4) If you receive a salary from two employers or more and a salary from one employer cannot cover all amounts of spousal (special) deduction, which are applied to a spouse qualified for withholding deduction and dependent relatives qualified for withholding deduction, the special exemption for specified relatives as well as exemptions for disabled persons, you can divide a spouse qualified for withholding deduction and dependent relatives qualified for withholding deduction and submit "Application for (change in) exemption for dependents of employment income earner regarding secondary salary" to other salary payers.
- (5) At year-end tax adjustment, if you apply for basic exemption, spouse (special) deduction or special deduction for specified relatives, it is required to prepare and submit "Application for Basic Exemption of Employment Income Earner", "Application for Exemption for Spouse of Employment Income Earner" or "Application for Special Exemption for Specified Relatives of Employment Income Earner in which necessary items are described, to the salary payer by the day before you receive the last salary in 2026.

2. Notes on describing this application

- (1) If you submit this application as a simplified application, describe "Your name," "Your domicile or residence" and "Your individual number" and write in the margin that there has been no change from the content described in the application submitted in the previous year.
- (2) In "Your individual number" and "Individual number," it is necessary to describe the My Numbers (individual numbers) of you, your spouse qualified for withholding deduction and relatives qualified for withholding deduction, dependents under 16 years of age, or a spouse, dependent relatives or specified relatives with retirement allowance, etc. However, if certain requirements are met, you may not need to describe My Number (individual numbers). Check with the salary payer.
- (3) In "Corporate (individual) number of salary payer," the salary payer who receives this application describes its corporate or individual number.
- (4) "Primary salary" means a salary received from the salary payer to whom you submitted this application, and "Secondary salary" means a salary received from other salary payers.
- (5) If dependent relatives qualified for deduction are elderly parents living together, check the box of "Elderly parent living together or the like" in "Elderly dependent relatives." If they are elderly dependent relatives other than elderly parents living together, check the box of "Others." Also, if dependent relatives qualified for withholding deduction are specified dependent relatives, check the box of "Specified dependent relative" in "Specified dependent relatives." If they are specified relatives, check the box "Specified relative" in the same column.
- (6) In "Estimated income in 2026," fill in an amount after subtracting necessary expenses or the like from a revenue amount. If the type of income is salary, the amount of salary income shall be an amount after subtracting salary income deductions from a revenue amount. With regard to nontaxable pension for surviving family, interest to which divided taxation at the source of income is applied, dividends on listed shares which you chose not to file tax returns or the like, these shall not be included in the base income to determine spouse or dependent relatives qualified for withholding deduction, etc.
- (7) If a spouse qualified for withholding deduction or dependent relatives qualified for deduction are non-residents, put a circle in "Non-resident relative." In addition, if the dependent relative qualified for deduction is a non-resident check the applicable item in "Non-resident relative" box as follows:
  - a. If the relative is 16 years of age or older and younger than 30 years of age or 70 years of age or older and under 30 years of age or 70 and above"
  - b. If the relative is 30 years of age or older and younger than 70 years of age and meets certain requirements (4) [5] b) (e) below), check the applicable box of "Studying abroad", "Disabled person" or "Payment of 380,000 yen or more". (If more than one item applies, check one of them.)

(Note) A "Non-residents" are persons who possess no address in Japan and have continuously had no residence in Japan for one year or more.
- (8) In "Fact that he/she lives in the same household," describe the total amount remitted or the like to the relatives in 2026 at year-end tax adjustment if the dependent relatives qualified for deduction are non-residents. (If such non-resident is a "specified relative," it is not necessary to describe in this column.)
- (9) In Contents of a disabled person or working student, describe the following matters:
  - a. Disabled persons (special disabled persons): Describe the facts that the persons fall under disabled persons (special disabled persons) such as the condition of disabilities, the type of disability certificate and the date of issuance, or the level of disability (disability grade). If the person is a spouse living in the same household or dependent relatives, also describe the person's name (whether living together or not in the case of special disabled persons), individual numbers (My Number) (<sup>NOTE</sup>), domicile or residence, date of birth, relationship with you and estimated income in 2026 except the person's name, you may omit to describe matters described in "Spouse qualified for withholding deduction", "Dependent relatives qualified for deduction" or "Matters related to inhabitants tax". Also, if the said spouse living in the same household or dependent relatives are non-residents, describe as such, as well as the total amount remitted to the spouse living in the same household or dependent relatives in 2026 (describe the total amount of remittances or the like at year-end tax adjustment).
  - (Note) If certain requirements are met, you may not need to describe individual numbers (My Number). Check with the salary payer.
  - b. Working student: Describe the name of school, the date of entrance, and the type of income and its estimated amount in 2026.

(Note) You are not required to fill in the above if you are a widow or single parent.
- (10) If there are two workers or more in your household, dependent relatives or the like in the household (i.e. a spouse qualified for withholding deduction, a disabled spouse living in the same household, a spouse qualified for special spouse withholding deduction, dependent relatives qualified for withholding deduction, or disabled dependent relatives or disabled specified dependent relatives) can be declared as other workers' dependents, or they can be divided within the household. In such cases, describe the name or the like of the dependent relatives in "D."
- (11) The "Matters related to inhabitants tax" should be filled in if you have (1) dependent relatives who are under 16 years of age, (2) a spouse (limited to those whose estimated income is 1,330,000 yen or less), dependent relatives or specified relatives with retirement allowance, etc. (limited to the allowances subject to income tax withholding, the same applies to (11) below), or (3) a widow or single parent (limited to the cases where the widow or the single parent has a dependent relative who has retirement allowance, etc.). (For inhabitants tax purposes, the amount of retirement income is not included in the amount of income for the requirement of dependents, etc.) For dependents relatives under 16 years of age who receive payment of retirement allowance, etc., if the estimated amount of income, including retirement income, exceeds 580,000 yen, do not describe "Dependents relatives under 16 years of age", but describe only "With retirement allowance, etc. Spouse/dependent relative." If "Non-exempted dependent relative living in overseas" or "Non-resident relative" is indicated, you may be asked to submit the confirmation materials under 3 (2) below to the municipality of your domicile by Mar. 15, 2027. If you have any questions about the "Matters related to inhabitants tax", please contact the municipality of your domicile.

3. Attached document

- (1) If you had been employed and obtained new employment before the end of the year, attach a withholding record or the like issued by the previous employer. If you changed the secondary salary to the primary one before the end of the year, attach a withholding record or the like issued by the primary salary payer before the change.
- (2) For details of the procedures such as required attachments when the relatives listed in "A" to "C" columns are non-residents, refer to "For Those Applying for an Exemption for Dependents, etc. with Regard to Non-resident Relatives" posted on the website of the National Tax Agency.
- (3) If you are the student of a (limited to students of special training schools or miscellaneous schools, or trainees of vocational training corporations) attach the copy of a certification issued by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology or the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare, as well as a certificate issued by the school head or the representative of the vocational training corporation.
